

Senniger Powers' Partner Paul Fleischut Interviewed by the Los Angeles Times

The Los Angeles Times recently looked to Senniger Powers' partner Paul Fleischut for expert opinion on the trademark settlement between Apple, Inc., and Beatles' record label Apple Corps.

The article discusses the confidential settlement reached between the two companies, which gives ownership of "Apple" trademarks to Apple Inc., along with the ability to license those trademarks to Apple Corps. In the article, Paul said the next logical step is to make the Beatles music available on iTunes. "They seem to have put their differences behind them to reach this agreement," he said.
