

Senniger Powers' Partner Kathleen Petrillo Named in *St. Louis Business Journal's "Who's Who in Technology"

Partner Kathleen Petrillo was among 35 persons, including 15 attorneys, who were featured in the special section "Who's Who in Technology" in the July 20 issue of the St. Louis Business Journal. Selectees were asked to describe their work and achievements in the technology field.

Ms. Petrillo was the first female attorney to join the firm, the firm's first woman partner, and the chief financial partner of the firm's first Executive Committee. She is gratified that these achievements have "encouraged other women to pursue a career in IP law". Ms. Petrillo's clients have included Akermin Inc., Baxter BioScience, Monsanto, Saint Louis University, Washington University, and Covidien.
